

Spaces and Places in Transition

Urban and Rural Transformations in Central and Eastern Europe

Conference Schedule

Wednesday, November 7

Heritage, Change & Continuity

9.00	ARRIVAL
	(9.45) WELCOME
10.00	Veronika Zavratnik Living with the furniture of desire: An ethnographic study into Slovenian middle class heritage
	Natalia Dusacova Reconstructing confessional space in a city: The case of Old Believers in Tiraspol
11.00	Irina Seits Muted histories and reunited memories: Swedish architectural heritage in St. Petersburg
	Christian Widholm & Victor Lundberg A cultural heritage in decay? Post-military remains, memories and emotions in Stockholm & the Baltic
12.00	LUNCH
13.00	KEYNOTE SPEAKER
	Mariusz Czepczyński Changing places, changing landscapes: Post-socialist spatial pathways and off-roads
	Slavomíra Ferenčuhová Bringing history back to theorizing the post-socialist city
15.00	Sebastian Juhnke & Talja Blokland Reinterpreting Elektropolis: Regeneration, collective memory & cultural heritage in East Berlin
	BREAK
16.00	András Vigvári Spatial exclusion and informal housing at the suburban edges of Budapest
	Megan Lueneburg Trakiya : A case of collaboration between architect and inhabitant in a 'panelki' neighborhood Bulgaria
17.00	Denys Gorbach & Aliona Liasheva Housing in post-Soviet Kiev: Approaches to theorising
18.00	CONFERENCE DINNER

Thursday, November 8

Remembering & Reimagining Rural Communities

	Falco Knaps Understanding the multivocality of landscape identities
	Imola Püsök Locating change: Understanding space, place & field in relation to a Romanian mining village
	Adam Németh The Nagykolónia estate in Almásfüzitő. The legacies of modernisation in a post-industrial village
	LUNCH
	KEYNOTE SPEAKER
	Andrew Butler Caught between place attachment and global agendas: Discourses, identities and democracy in the landscapes of Scotland and Sweden
	Sanja Loncar Transformations in Croatian rural areas: Abandonment in small cities and villages
	László Mód Vineyard landscapes in transition - Hungarian examples
	BREAK
	Edita Štulcaité Reconstruction of a village in Tusheti – The role & goals of the state in the development strategy of the highlands of Georgia
	Levente Szilágyi The social consequences of re-industrialization on rural communities in the Satu Mare region, Romania

Friday, November 9

Contested Public Spaces & Memorial Narratives

	Marjana Strmčnik Places of remembrance: Celebrating cohesion or division?
	Maria Brock Spectres of Lenin - Which Lenin is worth preserving?
	Viktor Fehér The new remembrance of Yugoslavism and the Mini-Yugoslavia in Subotica
	BREAK
	Barbora Vacková History mirrored in glass: Tomáš Baťa Memorial in Zlín
	Emőke Nagy New life of a cemetery – Case study
	LUNCH
	PANEL Urban gardening in Central and Eastern Europe: From participation to inclusion
	BREAK
	Petr Roubal Expert cultures and urban planners. Continuities and discontinuities in Prague urban planning in the early transition
	Lona Päll & Mari-Liis Madisson The media-battle of Haabersti white willow: Environmental conflict and its controversial meanings
	Susan Pearce Democratic claims-making and contested public spaces: From Tbilisi to Yerevan
	Jan Mazur & Pavol Suska The case of activist-led development of public space in central Bratislava